Puget Sound Nearshore Mapping- We can't Protect what We can't See November 3rd @ 6:30pm

Brian Footen co-founded and is now Executive Director of EarthViews Conservation Society. They work to advance the preservation and protection of lakes, rivers and waterways by documenting these critical endangered places using imagery and data. Brian has been hard at work mapping the nearshore of Puget Sound and has currently completed over 700 miles. Learn how you can help and join in the conversation to protect and restore Puget Sound's nearshore.
